

This ride explores Paddington and the harbourside residential areas of Edgecliff and Darling Point. Starting and finishing at Oxford Street, opposite the Paddington Army Barracks, the ride takes you along Paddington Street, one of the most magnificent streets in the East. Lined with plane trees and small leaf figs, it is an excellent example of a 19th Century Victorian terrace neighbourhood lovingly restored by its most recent residents.

The intersection of Paddington Street and Jersey Road is the highest point on the route. From here you coast down Thorne Street, lined with renovated workers' cottages. The route then winds through Darling Point, past magnificent mansions and highrise apartments, to Rushcutters Bay Marina, boasting views to the Harbour Bridge and Opera House. The return to Bondi Junction is a beautiful but challenging and steady uphill ride via The Five Ways to Oxford Street.
