

Buckinghamia celsissima

Ivory Curl Flower

Description

Small to medium native tree with dark green leathery leaves. Profuse fragrant cream flowers in summer to autumn

Size

Small to medium with rounded habit

Maximum height: 6 to 8 metres

Maximum spread: 3 to 5 metres

Features

- Useful small tree to large shrub
- Fast growing when water available with a dense habit and a rounded crown when mature
- New growth is attractive bronze colour

Uses

- Dense screening tree
- Suitable for small yards, courtyards
- Feature tree
- Bird and insect attracting

Preferred conditions

Full sun to partial shade. Adaptable to most soils. Prefers moisture.

Availability

Native nurseries

