

Ficus microcarpa var. hillii

Hill's Weeping Fig

Description

Large broad-domed tree. Lime green leaves and pale silvery bark

Size

Large native tree

Maximum height: 15 to 20 metres

Maximum spread: 12 to 16 metres

Root system: do not plant near sewer systems unless root barrier is installed

Features

- Fast growing, hardy adaptable tree
- Long lived

Uses

- Feature tree
- Avenue or park planting
- Tolerates pollution and root compaction

Preferred conditions

Full sun to part shade. Prefers moisture and well drained soils

Availability

All nurseries

