

MILES FRANKLIN AWARD WINNERS

The award was bequeathed by the will of Australian novelist, Miles Franklin for a 'published novel or play portraying Australian life in any of its phases'. All entries for the Award must have been published in the previous calendar year.

2015	The Eye of the sheep by Sofie Laguna
2014	All the birds singing by Evie Wyld
2013	Questions of travel by Michelle de Kretser
2012	All that I am by Anna Funder
2011	That deadman dance by Kim Scott
2010	Truth by Peter Temple
2009	Breath by Tim Winton
2008	The Time We Have Taken by Steven Carroll
2007	Carpentaria by Alexis Wright
2006	The Ballad of Desmond Kale by Roger McDonald
2005	The White Earth by Andrew McGahan
2004	The Great Fire by Shirley Hazzard
2003	Journey to the Stone Country by Alex Miller
2002	Dirt Music by Tim Winton
2001	Dark Palace by Frank Moorhouse
2000	Drylands by Thea Astley
	Benang by Kim Scott
1999	Eucalyptus by Murray Bail
1998	Jack Maggs by Peter Carey
1997	The Glade within the Grove by David Foster
1996	Highways to a War by Christopher Koch

1995 The Hand that Signed the Paper by Helen Demidenko
1994 The Grisly Wife by Rodney Hall
1993 The Ancestor Game by Alex Miller
1992 Cloudstreet by Tim Winton
1991 The Great World by David Malouf
1990 Oceana Fine by Tom Flood
1989 Oscar and Lucinda by Peter Carey

Date changed from year of publication to year of announcement.

1987 Dancing on Coral by Glenda Adams
1986 The Well by Elizabeth Jolley
1985 The Doubleman by Christopher Koch