

Callistemon 'Dawson River Weeper'

Callistemon Dawson River

Description

Tall shrub with elegant weeping branches and grey green foliage. Red bottlebrush flowers during most of the year

Size

Small size native

Maximum height: 3 to 5 metres

Maximum spread: 3 to 4 metres

Features

- Useful large shrub to small tree
- Elegant spreading tree with red bottlebrush flowers most prolific in spring and autumn

Uses

- Bird attracting
- Suitable for small yards
- Screening plant

Preferred conditions

Full sun to partial shade. Adaptable to most soils. Tolerates dry periods and some moderate coastal exposure.

Availability

All nurseries

© Australian National Botanic Gardens