

Geijera parviflora

Wilga

Description

Elegant weeping tree with white citrus scented flowers in late winter/spring

Size

Small to medium native tree

Maximum height: 6 to 8 metres

Maximum spread: 4 to 6 metres

Pruning: May need formative pruning to maintain single trunk

Features

- Handsome tree with attractive flowers but can be slow growing

Uses

- Soil and drought tolerant
- Suitable shade tree
- Informal native garden

Preferred conditions

Full sun to part shady position. Prefers poor sandstone soils.

Availability

Specialist native nurseries

