

Stenocarpus sinuatus

Queensland Firewheel Tree

Description

Evergreen native with spectacular red flowers in autumn to winter

Size

Large size, conical to narrow domed in shape

Maximum height: 10 to 12 metres

Maximum spread: 5 to 7 metres

Features

- Hardy tree
- Slow growing with attractive reddish bronze new growth

Uses

- Feature tree
- Shade tree
- Attractive to nectar feeding birds

Preferred conditions

Full sun but with wind protection. Adaptable to most soils. Prefers moisture.

Availability

Most native nurseries

