

Mark and Evette Moran Nib Literary Award Guidelines 2017

The Nib Waverley Library Award for Literature was established in 2002 to recognise excellence in research in the creation of a literary work.

Now the Mark and Evette Moran Nib Literary Award, this national award also acknowledges works of high level of literary merit, readability and value to the community. Nominations may be made in respect of all Australian writers, subject to these Guidelines.

In 2017, the award program is made up of a suite of 9 prizes, awarded across 4 categories:

- Alex Buzo Shortlist Prizes (6 prizes) - $1,000 each
- Mark and Evette Moran Nib Literary Award (the major Award) - $20,000
- Military History Prize – $3,000
- People's Choice Prize - $1,000

The total prize money for the award program is $30,000.

The Mark and Evette Moran Nib Literary Award is administered and presented annually by Waverley Council with the support of Principal Sponsors Mark and Evette Moran, and the generous assistance of community partners.

These Guidelines set out the rules of the award program and the terms and conditions on which all nominations are made. You are deemed to have read and agreed to these Guidelines by making a nomination.

NOMINATIONS CLOSE MONDAY 10 JULY 2017 23.59PM

1 Eligible works

- All kinds of fiction and non-fiction are eligible.
- All works submitted must be in English.
- Books that are the collaborative effort of no more than two authors, jointly responsible for the entire text, may be nominated. Other works of multiple authorship will not be considered.
- The nominated work must be the original work of the author/s.
- Only new work may be nominated and a book will not be eligible if a significant proportion has previously been published.

- f) Works originally published in digital format are eligible, provided three copies are submitted in hard (printed) copy to facilitate the judging process, and they satisfy all other requirements.

2 Eligible authors

- a) Authors whose works are nominated must be Australian Citizens or legal Permanent Residents of Australia and must be living at the time of entry.
- b) If an author dies or ceases to hold Australian Citizenship or Permanent Resident status after his or her work has been nominated, the judges will not consider that work for the Award.
- c) Authors who are employees of Waverley Council or a sponsor organisation, or a member of the Award Committee or the Friends of Waverley Library Committee are not eligible to be nominated.

3 Nominations

- a) In all matters relating to conditions of nomination, the decision of the Award Committee is final, and in particular, any breach of these Guidelines may render a nomination invalid.
- b) Nominations must be received in full by Monday 10 July 2017. Any received after that date may not be eligible for consideration. It is the responsibility of the nominator to confirm their nomination has been received by the submission deadline.
- c) Anyone nominating works on behalf of an author is deemed to be doing so with the author's consent. It is the responsibility of the nominator to obtain and be able to demonstrate the author's consent before nominating the work.
- d) All nominations must be made through the official online entry form available at www.waverley.nsw.gov.au/nib. Nominators who are unable to access this form online should contact Waverley Library for a hard copy form.
- e) For a nomination to be considered, the following items must be received in full by 10 July 2017:
 - i) a fully completed nomination form (entered online or via hard copy by arrangement) for each nomination;
 - ii) an entry fee of $60 (including GST) per nomination; and
 - iii) five copies of each nominated work (or three printed copies in the case of electronic/digital only format).
- f) Works must be nominated by a person and may not be submitted in the name of a committee or organisation.
- g) There is no limit to the number of works that may be entered by a nominator, or that may be the work of the same author, provided that all other requirements are met.
- h) Confirmation of receipt of nominations will be given within three weeks.
- i) All copies of books submitted become the property of Waverley Library on submission and may be retained or donated to other libraries or charities, or in any other way it may determine. One copy of the winning entry will be retained for award records.
- j) Entry fees will be applied towards offsetting some part of the associated costs of administration and judges' honoraria.

4 The Judging Process

- a) Nominated works will be judged by an independent panel of three or more judges, selected by the Award Committee.
- b) All nominations are assessed against the criteria of:
 - i) excellence in literary research;
 - ii) readability;
 - iii) literary merit and
 - iv) value to the community.
- c) In all matters relating to judging, the judges' decision is final and no correspondence or discussion will be entered into.
- d) The judges may determine that an award or prize not be made if the nominated works are not considered to be of sufficient merit, and the judges may divide any of the prizes between a number of nominations if they believe this is warranted.
- e) Nominations may be eligible for the following awards/prizes as determined by the judges:

1 Alex Buzo Shortlist Prize

The judges will award this prize to no more than 6 nominated works which they deem to be the most outstanding of all nominations, with reference to the judging criteria.

Recipients of this prize will form the major Award shortlist and each will be eligible to win the Mark and Evette Moran Nib Literary Award and/or the People's Choice Prize.

A brief summary of all research undertaken by the relevant author(s) in relation to short-listed works is required, and must be submitted when requested.

Each recipient of the Alex Buzo Shortlist Prize will receive $1,000 (+ GST) and a certificate.

2 Mark and Evette Moran Nib Literary Award

The winner of this Award will be determined by the judges from the announced shortlist, recipients of the Alex Buzo Shortlist Prize.

The winner of this Award will receive $20,000 (+ GST) and a specially commissioned statuette.

3 People's Choice Prize

This prize will be given to the Alex Buzo Shortlist Prize recipient who is selected as most deserving by a public vote.

Full terms and conditions for this the public voting process can be found at www.waverley.nsw.gov.au/nib.

The winner of the People's Choice Prize will receive $1,000 (+ GST).

4 Military History Literary Prize

The Military History Literary Prize is offered to a work that illustrates the service and sacrifice of Australian service men and women, families or the broader home front, during or in relation to any theatre(s) of war. Books may be written from a military, social or cultural perspective.

Authors shortlisted for the Military History Literary Prize may also be considered for the Alex Buzo Shortlist Prize and the Mark and Evette Moran Nib Literary Award.

A brief summary of all research undertaken by the relevant author(s) in relation to short-listed works is required, and must be submitted within 10 days of notification of being shortlisted.

There is no shortlist prize attached to the Military History Literary Prize.

The winner of the Military History Prize will receive $3,000 (+ GST).

5 General

- a) All winners of all prizes and the major Award will be announced in November, with all prizes presented at a public function to be held on Thursday 23 November 2017.
- b) Regretfully, it is not possible to personally notify unsuccessful nominations.
- c) The Award Committee may invite any shortlisted or winning author to participate in literary discussions and events, and sign copies of their books.
- d) Publishers of winning works are required to provide an extract (in PDF format) of no more than 500 words from the book and/or a publisher's blurb for promotional purposes.
- e) Publishers are also requested to use all available means, including stickers, to promote the shortlisted and winning works. Design work for a sticker will be provided by Waverley Council after the announcement of the winners.
- f) In all cases not covered by these Guidelines, or where there may be scope for interpretation, advice should be sought from the Award Committee with requests made via the award program Producer.
- g) A list of all eligible works entered for the award program may be made available and used in conjunction with a Library Reading Program or related activity.

6 Promotion of the Award

- a) The publisher and author of any work nominated agree to work in collaboration with Waverley Council to undertake a mutually acceptable program of activities to promote the award program including:
 - i) supplying biographical and bibliographical information including text extracts of up to 200 words, hi-res jacket and cover images, author photographs and any additional material (trailers, audio extracts, etc.) that will help promote the award program
 - ii) using best endeavours to facilitate recorded interviews and other public activities with authors to be used by the award program Producer on the internet, or other media platforms to promote the Mark and Evette Moran Nib Literary Award.
