

'The Nib': CAL Waverley Library Award for Literature 2011

Waverley Council and Copyright Agency Limited with the support of the Friends of Waverley Library are pleased to announce that this prestigious prize of $20,000 will again be offered in 2011.

The Award will be presented for excellence in research in the creation of a literary work of merit, first published between 1st July 2010 and 30 June 2011.

Other factors considered by the judges include readability, literary merit and value to the community.

All kinds of fiction and non-fiction are eligible.

All shortlisted authors will receive the Alex Buzo Shortlist Prize.

The judges' decision will be announced and the winner's prize presented at an award function in November 2011.

Guidelines and Application Forms can be downloaded from www.waverley.nsw.gov.au/library/award or obtained from Waverley Library, telephone (02) 93867709.

The Award is generously sponsored by CAL's Cultural Fund, with assistance from Friends of Waverley Library.

The Award is now in its 10th year. Help us celebrate this milestone with your nomination!

Closing Date: 8 July 2011
