

Ceratopetalum gummiferum

NSW Christmas Bush

Description

Evergreen native tree with upright habit. Small white flowers in spring followed by brilliant pink/red sepals in early to mid summer

Size

Small sized native tree

Maximum height: 4 to 6 metres

Maximum spread: 2 to 3 metres

Pruning: benefits from light pruning to keep bushy and compact

Features

- Attractive small tree to large shrub
- Fast growing with a dense habit and a rounded crown when mature.

Uses

- Feature tree
- Suitable for small yards, courtyards
- Cut flowers

Preferred conditions

Full sun to partial shade. Requires well-drained soils. Prefers moisture.

Availability

All nurseries. Many cultivars available

