HOW DO I USE DATABASES?

Visit www.waverley.nsw.gov.au/services/library/explore_collections/e-library/research_databases
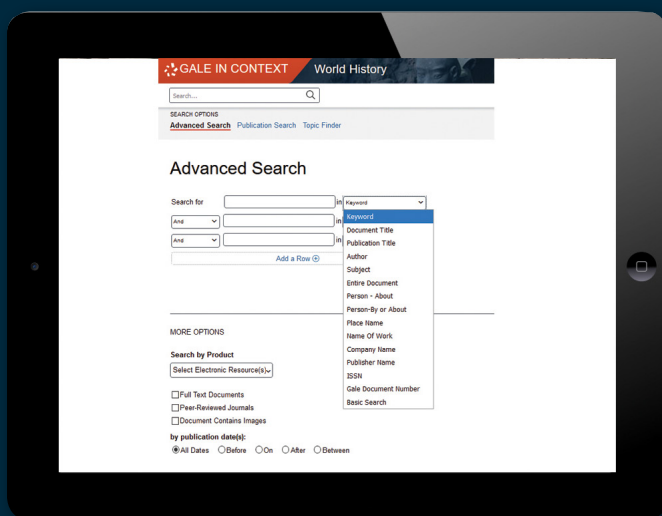

STEP 1
Please enter your library card number to log in: Pxxxxxxxxxx
Type terms in the search box and then select the Basic option, a good all-purpose search

STEP 2
Basic search applies a proprietary algorithm to deliver the most relevant search results based on your search term(s). The algorithm prioritises different indexes which include but are not limited to Keyword, Title, text from the Entire Document, and Subject.

STEP 3
Additional ways to search:
Advanced - select an index and combine search terms and limiters for the most precise searches
Subject Guide - find content about a topic
Publication - find content by its source

TIPS:

Get Link: Use the Get Link tool to generate a reliable permalink back to search results, individual articles, publications, and media content.
- Click or tap the Get Link icon
- Use the Select button to help you highlight the entire link
- Copy the permalink and paste it elsewhere

STEP 4

Filter your results by: publication date, subjects, document type, publication title or newspaper sections. Also, as full text documents or peer-reviewed journals
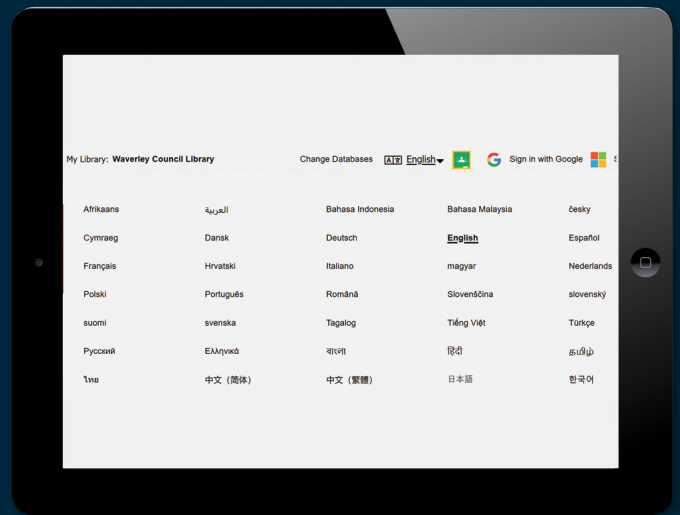

STEP 5

You can switch between GALE databases by clicking "Change databases" on the top right corner of the screen.

STEP 6

"Change database" option will give the list of all available GALE databases.

STEP 7

Any GALE database can be viewed in your own language by changing the language setting.

TIPS!

Browse by Discipline/Browse by Topic

Gale Academic OneFile: The Browse by Discipline feature provides a curriculum-aligned browsing experience with smaller targeted results. Example: Browsing through the Psychology discipline for "memory" will result in content specific to the Psychology discipline and not necessarily related to "computer memory."

Gale General OneFile: The Browse by Topic feature allows quick access to the most popular and most-searched content across multiple distinct categories.
