

The Mayors of Waverley Council

On 13th June, 1859, Sir William Thomas Denison, Governor-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Colony of New South Wales, proclaimed the establishment of the Municipality of Waverley.

The New South Wales Government Gazette 14th June 1859 published the official proclamation with an interesting description of the municipal boundaries and of a 'Petition signed by seventy householders resident within the rural districts of Waverley, Bondi, and Little Coogee... praying that the same might be declared a Municipality'.

David Fletcher, 1868, Waverley's first Mayor
