

Ficus rubiginosa

Port Jackson Fig; Rusty Fig

Description

Large broad-domed tree. Reddish purple fruit in autumn

Size

Large locally native tree

Maximum height: 12 to 15 metres

Maximum spread: 10 to 12 metres

Root system: do not plant near sewer systems

Features

- Shiny dark green leaves with a rusty underside
- Long lived

Uses

- Feature tree
- Avenue or park planting
- Food source for native wildlife

Preferred conditions

Full sun. Prefers moisture and well drained soils

Availability

All nurseries

