Syzygium luehmannii
Riberry

Description
Attractive densely foliaged tree with glossy green leaves. Pink new growth and edible fruit.

Size
Medium native tree
Maximum height: 6 to 8 metres
Maximum spread: 4 to 6 metres

Features
• Fast growing with a dense habit when young gradually becoming a single trunked tree
• Clusters of white flowers in spring followed by small red fruits

Uses
• Dense screening tree
• Fruit used for jam making
• Bird attracting

Preferred conditions
Full sun to partial shade. Adaptable to most soils. Prefers moisture.

Availability
All nurseries. Dwarf forms are available